

Photo Reproduction & Use Policy

Ketchikan Museums stewards collections of the City of Ketchikan Museum Department and the Tongass Historical Society. We provide access to the collections and quality reproductions consistent with our mission and current copyright laws. All requests for reproduction or use of the collections will be evaluated to ensure compliance with these standards.

PERMISSION IS GRANTED FOR ONE-TIME USE: Permission is granted for one usage in printed media, advertisement, virtual display, or other formats as outlined on the Photo Reproduction Invoice. No further rights are extended with the sale. Subsequent publications, revised new editions, re-issues, websites, products, or other derivative formats require separate approval and a new invoice. Ketchikan Museums reserves the right to impose additional regulations or decline requests that may jeopardize the integrity or mission of Ketchikan Museums or the Tongass Historical Society.

COPYRIGHT: The researcher assumes all responsibility for securing written permission for reproduction from the copyright owner(s) in accordance to the 1976 Copyright Act, (Title 17, United States Code). Ketchikan Museums assumes no responsibility for copyright infringement by the researcher, or for royalties or fees claimed by the copyright owner(s). The researcher will indemnify and hold harmless Ketchikan Museums from and against any and all claims, damages, liabilities, and expenses resulting from the researcher's use of materials from Ketchikan Museums or the Tongass Historical Society.

FEES: Reproduction requests are subject to the fee schedule in effect at the time of the request. Fees may also include staff time for research, scanning, or original photography. Fees must be prepaid. Failure to pay fees invalidates any written permission for reproduction. Payment can be made by cash or credit card. All sales are final.

TIME FRAME: Reproduction requests will be initiated upon receipt of written permission, payment, and a signed Photo Reproduction Invoice. Requests are filled in the order in which they are received. Requests may take up to 4 weeks to process from the time the order is placed. Please inform staff of time sensitive projects.

CREDIT LINE: All photo reproductions shall visibly display a credit line, which may include the following elements: Collection, the photo's identification number, and photographer (if known). Credit line information will be furnished by Ketchikan Museums. The credit shall appear in each publication, advertisement, virtual display, or other format.

PHOTO FORMAT: Print is the preferred method of reproduction. Digital images are available upon request. Digital images are formatted at 300 dpi, jpg files, and black and white (unless original format is color). Preferred digital file delivery methods are the City of Ketchikan share site, email, CD, or flash drive.

GRATIS COPY: One complete complimentary copy of the publication or other commercial product in which the photo reproduction appears shall be furnished to Ketchikan Museums. All expenses for shipping and handling are to be borne by the researcher.

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, U.S. Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in tile Law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of the specified conditions is that tile photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.
